

Emergency contact at the time of disaster

How to communicate evacuation information

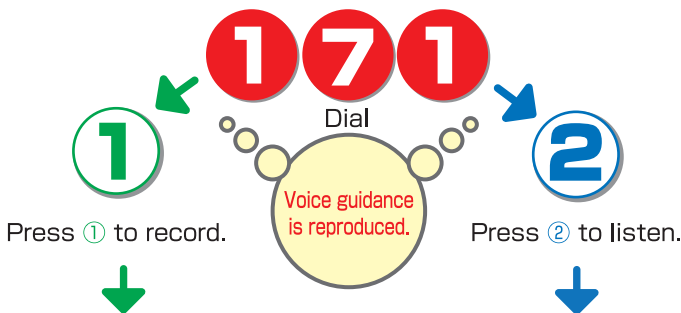

➡ Evacuation information ➡ Weather information, etc.

Disaster Emergency Message Dial

■ How to record a message ■

■ How to reproduce a message ■

For "Victim," enter your own number, and for "non-victims," enter the telephone number of a victim (from area code), and → Record or listen to a message (within 30 seconds).

It is an NTT disaster message dial service operated in the event of a disaster (heavy rain, flood, etc.). It will be useful to confirm the safety of your family and friends when they experience a disaster.

For inquiries about the Disaster Emergency Message Dial "171," contact your nearest NTT branch or sales office.

Disaster Message Board It is available from the main page of mobile phone company websites in case of an emergency.

■ Message registration ■

- 1 Select "Disaster Message Board" on the main screen.
- 2 When the "Disaster Message Board" screen appears, select "Register."
- 3 Select the message item you want to send.
- 4 Select "Register" on the screen as well.

Message registration is complete.

■ Confirmation of messages ■

- 1 Select "Disaster Message Board" on the main screen.
- 2 When the "Disaster Message Board" screen appears, select "Confirm."
- 3 Enter the phone number of a target person.
- 4 Select "Search" on the screen.

Message search results are displayed.

Disaster Message Board
(web171)

You can register and confirm safety information (message) by entering landline or mobile telephone numbers using PCs, smartphones, etc.

URL : <https://www.web171.jp>

